AN EVENING WITH DON LEMON ON I ONCE WAS LOST: MY SEARCH FOR GOD IN AMERICA

This is a ticketed event that includes the book ($35) and free access to Street Fair. For ticketing options and information on how to access all other programs, visit MiamiBookFair.com.

Renowned journalist DON LEMON always had a complicated relationship with God. He cherished the Southern Black church he was raised in but struggled with the fundamentalist rejection of his right to exist as a gay man — one who wanted to marry his longtime love in a church wedding with all the traditional trimmings. In his work as a reporter, moreover, he saw his fellow Americans losing faith in a higher power, in institutions, and in each other. Setting out to understand the place that religion has in our lives today, Lemon turned a journalistic eye on ancient stories and found connections that sparked memories, conversations, and chance encounters. Then, suddenly, his world unraveled: In a blaze of inglorious headlines, he was ousted from his high-profile network news job and tasked with redefining his role in the shifting media landscape. But through a year of personal changes and professional whiplash, he kept his "eyes on the prize" and ultimately found what he was seeking: grace, within himself and in this nation we call home. Rich with humor and Louisiana realness, I Once Was Lost is a prayer for a country that reflects the multifaceted image of God and a clarion call to those who believe in our common humanity enough to fight for it.

AN EVENING WITH AMIR TIBON ON THE GATES OF GAZA: A STORY OF BETRAYAL, SURVIVAL, AND HOPE IN ISRAEL'S BORDERLANDS

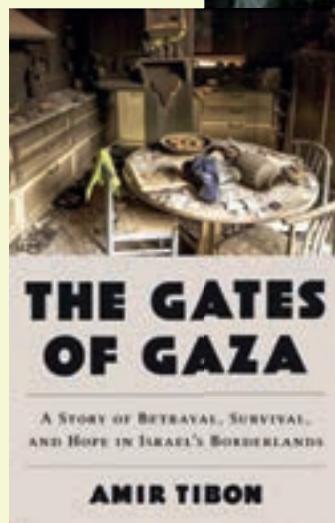

This is a ticketed event that includes the book ($35) and free access to Street Fair. For ticketing options and information on how to access all other programs, visit MiamiBookFair.com.

On the morning of October 7, 2023, AMIR TIBON and his wife were awakened by mortar rounds exploding near their home in Kibbutz Nahal Oz, an Israeli community less than a mile from Gaza City. Soon, they were holding their two young daughters in the family's reinforced safe room, urging them not to cry as gunfire echoed just outside the door. With his cell phone battery running low, Tibon texted his father: "The girls are behaving really well, but I'm worried they'll lose patience soon and Hamas will hear us." Some 45 miles north, Tibon's parents had just cut short an early morning swim along the shores of Tel Aviv. Now, they jumped in their Jeep and sped toward Nahal Oz, armed only with a pistol but intent on saving their family at all costs. In The Gates of Gaza: A Story of Betrayal, Survival, and Hope in Israel's Borderlands (Little, Brown and Company), Tibon tells this harrowing story in full for the first time. He describes his family's ordeal and the bravery that ultimately led to their rescue alongside the histories of the place they call home and the systems of power that have kept them and their neighbors in Gaza in harm's way for decades. More than one family's odyssey, The Gates of Gaza is the intimate story of a tight-knit community and the broader saga of war and hostility between two national movements — a conflict that has not yet extinguished the enduring hope for peace.

AN EVENING WITH ALICE McDERMOTT ON ABSOLUTION

 This is a ticketed event that includes free access to this program as well as the weekend Street Fair, where you'll find literary events, live music, children's activities, booksellers, local artisans, and gourmet delights! For information on how to access all other programs, visit MiamiBookFair.com.

American women have been mostly minor characters in the literature of the Vietnam War, but in ALICE McDERMOTT's Absolution they take center stage. Tricia is a shy newlywed, married to a rising attorney on loan to navy intelligence; Charlene is a practiced corporate spouse and mother of three, a beauty and a bully. In 1963 Saigon, the two form a wary alliance as they balance the era's mandate to be "helpmeets" to their ambitious husbands with their own inchoate impulse to "do good" for the people of Vietnam. Sixty years later, Charlene's daughter reaches out to Tricia and together they look back at their time in Saigon, revisiting that pivotal time and discovering how their own lives as women on the periphery — of politics, of history, of war, of their husbands' convictions — have been shaped and burdened by the same sort of unintended consequences that followed America's tragic interference in Southeast Asia.

MIAMI BOOK FAIR POSTER

A highlight of every Miami Book Fair is selecting a different artist each year to create a work of art that embodies what Miami Book Fair is all about. This year that symbolic brush is being held by NICOLE J. SAMPER, a Miami-based artist and graphic designer who is currently pursuing a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree at New World School of the Arts. Her concept was inspired by downtown Miami — its skyline, diversity, and “melting pot of different countries coming together.” With colorful depictions of books as buildings against a bright azure sky, the work immediately draws you in.

“Past Miami Book Fair poster artists have done such an amazing job at portraying what the Fair is about through their illustrations and graphics,” said Samper. “I was so humbled that I was even [considered] this year, and when I found out I was selected it was like an out of body experience!”

AN EVENING WITH ERIK LARSON ON THE DEMON OF UNREST: A SAGA OF HUBRIS, HEARTBREAK, AND HEROISM AT THE DAWN OF THE CIVIL WAR

This is a ticketed event that includes the book ($35) and free access to Street Fair. For ticketing options and information on how to access all other programs, visit MiamiBookFair.com.

ERIK LARSON offers a gripping account of the chaotic months between Abraham Lincoln's November 6, 1860, election and the Confederacy's shelling of Sumter — a period marked by tragic errors and miscommunications, enflamed egos and craven ambitions, personal tragedies and betrayals. At the heart of this suspense-filled narrative are Maj. Robert Anderson, Sumter's commander and a former slave owner sympathetic to the South but loyal to the Union; Edmund Ruffin, a vain and bloodthirsty radical who stirs secessionist ardor at every opportunity; and Mary Boykin Chesnut, wife of a prominent planter, conflicted over both marriage and slavery and seeing parallels between them. In the middle of it all is the overwhelmed Lincoln, battling with his duplicitous secretary of state, William Seward, as he tries desperately to avert a war that he fears is inevitable, one that will eventually kill 750,000 Americans. Drawing on diaries, secret communiques, slave ledgers, and plantation records, Larson gives us a political horror story that captures the forces that led America to the brink — a dark reminder that we often don't see a cataclysm coming until it's too late.

This is a ticketed event that includes the book ($25) and free access to Street Fair. For ticketing options and information on how to access all other programs, visit MiamiBookFair.com.

In this strange age of crisis where there really is no front line, conflict journalist CLARISSA WARD has moved from one hot zone to the next. With multiple assignments in Syria, Gaza, Ukraine, and Afghanistan, Ward — who speaks seven languages — has been based in Baghdad, Beirut, Beijing, and Moscow. She has seen and documented the violent remaking of the world at close range, and with deep empathy finds a way to tell the hardest stories. On All Fronts: The Education of a Journalist is the riveting account of her singular career and of journalism in this age of extremism. Following a privileged but lonely childhood, Ward found her calling as an international war correspondent in the aftermath of 9/11. From her early days in the field, she was embedded with marines at the height of the Iraq War and reporting from the center of Israel's war with Hezbollah. Soon she was on assignment all over the globe, and from her multiple stints entrenched with Syrian rebels to her deep investigations into the Western extremists who are drawn to ISIS, Ward covered Bashar al-Assad's reign of terror without fear and with courage and compassion. Hers is an unforgettable story of one extraordinary journalist — and of a changing world.

AN EVENING IN PORTUGAL — 50 YEARS OF THE CARNATION REVOLUTION THROUGH PORTUGUESE LITERATURE

Fifty years ago, the Carnation Revolution brought profound social and artistic transformations to Portugal. These changes were vividly reflected in literature, giving rise to a celebrated new generation of post-revolution writers. As we commemorate 50 years of creative freedom in Portuguese literature, we'll explore the impact of these historical milestones on the art of writing.

Joining us are JOSÉ LUÍS PEIXOTO, distinguished Portuguese writer, poet, and recipient of the 2001 José Saramago Award, whose work has been published and translated into 30 languages, and JUDITE CANHA FERNANDES, Portuguese poet, novelist, dramatist, and recipient of the 2020 Best Narrative Fiction Book award from the Portuguese Society of Authors. She is currently working on an essay about the Carnation Revolution. Moderated by San Diego State University professor RICARDO VASCONCELOS, PH.D., we'll delve into the unique contributions of these two remarkable voices in Portuguese literature. A performance by Arte Total including contemporary dance and a spoken-word poem, Musa, by SOPHIA DE MELLO BREYNER, will open the evening; "A Taste of Portugal" networking session with Portuguese wine and delicacies will follow.

AN EVENING WITH AMY TAN ON THE BACKYARD BIRD CHRONICLES

This is a ticketed event that includes the book ($35) and free access to Street Fair. For ticketing options and information on how to access all other programs, visit MiamiBookFair.com.

In 2016, AMY TAN grew overwhelmed by the state of the world: Hatred and misinformation became a daily presence on social media and the country felt more divisive than ever. In search of peace, she turned toward the natural world just beyond her window and, specifically, the birds visiting her yard. But what began as an attempt to find solace turned into something far greater — an opportunity to savor quiet moments during a volatile time, connect to nature in a meaningful way, and imagine the intricate lives of the birds she admired. In The Backyard Bird Chronicles (Knopf) Tan tracks the natural beauty that surrounds us and maps the passage of time. Through daily entries, thoughtful questions, beautiful original sketches, and boundless charm and wit, she shares her foray into birding and the wonders of the world.

"MIAMI UNDERGROUND: WHAT WE DID IS SECRET" — PANEL

In the alt-culture scene of 1980s Miami, artists, music makers, and scenesters mixed in the few party and cultural spaces the city offered, creating multidisciplinary events thought of as "just parties and shows." During that decade, more and more creatives settled in Miami, joining the natives who'd kick-started it all. By the time Hurricane Andrew hit in '92, Miami was already heading toward what it is today, where Art Basel and the Ultra Music Festival anchor the seasons, and countless other cultural happenings can be found any day of the week. And yet it still takes a DIY attitude to break out and "make it" — here in Miami and beyond. Punk Under The Sun: Punk & New Wave in South Florida authors JOEY SEEMAN and CHRIS POTASH lead a discussion about Miami's past and present DIY culture, with ALE CAMPOS and EMILIE MILGRIM of Miami-based band Las Nubes, Artifacts Gallery founder HOWARD DAVIS, and author and drummer JOEY MAYA (aka Joey Wrecked).

LIVING YOUR BEST QUEER LIFE — MEMOIR

Manboobs: A Memoir of Musicals, Visas, Hope, and Cake is KOMAIL AIJAZUDDIN's story of courage, love, and bravery. Growing up in Pakistan, ashamed of his body and knowing he was different, he believed his only chance at happiness existed in a gay-friendly America. But after arriving in a post-9/11 world, he was forced to navigate prejudice and self-doubt in his quest for a meaningful life. In his part memoir-in-essays, part cultural critique Mean Boys: A Personal History, queer Chinese American writer GEOFFREY MAK speaks of boys wielding cruelty to claim their place in the pecking order. As such, they are the emblem of our image-obsessed society and an era always thirsting for the next edgy thing, even at our peril. GREG MARSHALL's Leg: The Story of a Limb and the Boy Who Grew from It is a funny and insightful memoir of a singular childhood. It is also a unique examination of what it means to transform when there are parts of yourself you can't change, a moving portrait of a family in crisis, and a tale of resilience of spirit.

KEREN BLANKFELD's Lovers in Auschwitz: A True Story is a remarkable saga about Zippi Spitzer and David Wisnia, who fell in love in Auschwitz, were separated upon liberation, led extraordinary lives apart following the war, and then found each other more than 70 years later. Inspired by historical events, LAUREN GRODSTEIN's We Must Not Think of Ourselves: A Novel is the story of an underground group of archivists who fought to preserve humanity inside the Warsaw Ghetto during WWII. When one prisoner joins the group, he falls in love and then discovers a potential escape, facing the impossible question of who to save — and at what cost.

SEEKING HOME — FICTION

RACHEL KHONG's Real Americans: A Novel spans generations of one family, from early 2000s New York City, where young and broke Lily Chen falls for dashing Matthew, to 2021, when 15-year-old Nick Chen searches for his biological father, a journey that produces more questions than answers. In DINAW MENGESTU's Someone Like Us: A Novel, after abandoning his once-promising career as a journalist in search of a new life in Paris, Mamush found love and created a family with Hannah, a photographer. Five years later his marriage is collapsing, and Mamush returns to the Ethiopian community of his childhood in Washington, D.C., searching for answers to questions he was told never to ask. And in NAYANTARA ROY's The Magnificent Ruins: A Novel, a woman returns to India from New York after inheriting her ancestral home, forced to confront her culture, estranged mother, and family all living under the same roof.

REALMS & ROMANCE — FICTION

ROMINA GARBER's Castle of the Cursed follows a girl's supernatural path after her parents' mysterious deaths. Suffering from survivor's guilt, she goes to live with her estranged aunt at an ancestral Spanish castle that harbors a trove of family secrets. When she meets a silver-eyed boy that only she can see, they grudgingly team up to find answers, igniting an investigation — and romance. In MARY E. PEARSON's The Courting of Bristol Keats: A Novel, Bristol and her sisters struggle mightily after losing their parents. Then, an "aunt" they've never heard of promises she can help — and suddenly everything Bristol thought she knew about her family is a lie. Her father might even be alive — not killed, but taken by terrifying creatures to another realm.

NATASHA PULLEY's queer sci-fi story The Mars House: A Novel, January, once a principal in London's Royal Ballet, has become a refugee in a terraformed colony on Mars. There, his life is dictated by his second-class status as an Earthstronger — a person whose body is not adjusted to lower gravity — and the xenophobic politics at play.

FLORENCIA DEL CAMPO presenta una obra entre la autoficción y el ensayo que se pregunta por la pertenencia, por la extranjeridad y por la familia; KARLA SUÁREZ nos ofrece una novela que reflexiona sobre cómo ciertos objetos pueden ser «pedacitos de uno», en una hermosa metáfora acerca de la pérdida y el descubrimiento; KEILA VALL DE LA VILLE llega con una obra sobre el valor de la solidaridad y los afectos como afirmación de la propia identidad. ## "STANDING ON THE SHOULDERS OF ANCESTORS: MIDDLE GRADE ADVENTURES" — FICTION

Three young adventurers rise to the challenge to chart their own course! In RUTH BEHAR's Across So Many Seas, while on a family vacation to Spain, Paloma retraces four generations of Jewish women as they travel across Europe, Cuba, and Miami to flee persecution and find opportunity. In Not Nothing by GAYLE FORMAN, 12-year-old Alex is stuck volunteering at a retirement home over the summer, but 117-year-old Josey's vivid recounting of escaping ghettos, dragnets, and a concentration camp inspires the young boy to reflect on his own actions and make some changes in himself. And in CYNTHIA LEITCH SMITH's On a Wing and a Tear, folklore takes the wheel as Great-Grandfather Bat has a torn wing but needs to make it to Chicago for a long-standing contest between Birds and Mammals. His only hope is two kids, a grandpa, and a fated road trip across the country.

"OLD ROOTS & NEW STEMS: GROWING INTO A YOUNG ADULT" — FICTION

Like a tree growing from concrete, these three stories celebrate resilience in the face of adversity that comes with growing up. In NADINE PINEDE's poignant novel-in-verse When the Mapou Sings, teenage Lucille's life is uprooted by sudden changes and the disappearance of a friend, but she finds strength and guidance in her roots — the Haitian mapou trees. In SAMUEL TEER and MAR JULIA's graphic novel Brownstone, a young woman grapples with her identity in a neighborhood that thinks, speaks, and acts in a different language, challenging her to find her place in both a beat-up old brownstone and a vibrant Latin community. And in JUAN VIDAL's novel-in-verse A Second Chance on Earth, friendship takes center stage — and the wheel! — when young Marcos takes a taxi ride through Colombia trying to

MEG MEDINA ON NO MORE SEÑORA MIMÍ — PICTURE BOOK

Newbery Medalist and National Ambassador for Young People's Literature MEG MEDINA presents No More Señora Mimí, a heartwarming picture book about community and the special role caretakers play in a child's life. Ana cannot contain her excitement — her abuela is coming to stay with her and is sure to let her play whenever she wants to, instead of rushing her off to school like her neighbor and babysitter, Señora Mimí, sometimes does. In fact, as Ana's classmate points out, she won't need Señora Mimí to babysit at all anymore! But Señora Mimí is a good listener, and they have a lot of fun together feeding the squirrels and eating snacks. Maybe Ana isn't ready to say goodbye just yet?

Welcome to the 11th Miami Film Festival GEMS!

GEMS is Miami's mini fall festival featuring more than 25 of the season's top award contenders and prestige pictures. The films included in GEMS are some of the biggest titles traveling the world right now – not to mention the most lauded. From Audience Award winners such as the Tribeca Film Festival's iCasa Bonita Mi Amor! to SXSW's Bob Trevino Likes It and the Cannes Film Festival Grand Prix winner All We Imagine as Light, GEMS is five days of cinema heaven.

We're kicking things off in true Miami fashion with Pedro Almodóvar's The Room Next Door, starring beloved actresses Julianne Moore and Tilda Swinton in the auteur's first English-language feature. Miami Film Festival has championed Almodóvar's work dating as far back as the very first edition of the festival back in 1984, and we're thrilled to bring his latest film – which just won the prestigious Golden Lion at the Venice Film Festival – to audiences all these years later.

For our Centerpiece titles, it's all about variety. First up is Emilia Pérez, directed by MFF alum and past award winner Jacques Audiard (Dheepan, Rust and Bone), starring Cannes best actress winner Karla Sofía Gascón alongside Zoe Saldaña and Selena Gomez. Like an electrifying telenovela, Emilia Pérez takes you on an incendiary visual and auditory journey through Mexico City.

And don't think we forgot to bring the star power. As part of our brand-new partnership with The Hollywood Reporter, actor Sebastian Stan is coming to Miami. The Marvel star will be recording a live episode of the hugely popular "Awards Chatter" podcast with THR's executive editor of awards, Scott Feinberg.

Here to receive one of our top honors, Arianne Phillips joins us for a talk on her life as a film costume designer for many huge stars, including Lady Gaga, Timothée Chalamet and Madonna. She'll reflect on her career in conversation at the Miami Fashion Institute at Miami Dade College.

Closing out the festivities will be Searchlight's A Real Pain. A smash hit at the most recent Sundance Film Festival, where it won the Waldo Salt Screenwriting Award, A Real Pain stars Jesse Eisenberg (who also wrote and directed the film) alongside Succession's Kieran Culkin in this deeply affecting exploration of generational trauma and modern angst.

MFF is a year-round organization, and GEMS is one of two festivals that we host each year. Our larger festival, Miami Film Festival, is happening April 4-13, 2025, and will be packed with more than 100 great feature films, as well as celebrity conversations and filmmaker panels. We also present a year-round Cuban Cinema Series, supported by ArtesMiami; a membership program called Miami Film Society that has screenings year-round; and we've launched a $100,000 fund for documentaries called The Louies.

Enjoy Miami Film Festival GEMS and we'll see you in the cinema.

Ingrid (Julianne Moore) and Martha (Tilda Swinton) were close friends in their youth. Ingrid went on to become an autofiction novelist while Martha became a war reporter, and they were separated by the circumstances of life. After years of being out of touch, they meet again. But the joys of being reunited are tempered when Martha makes a request, one that will test their newly strengthened bond.

palette seen in Eduard Grau's lush cinematography, the enviable set design or his uncanny ability to blend offbeat humor with melodrama, this is an Almodóvar film through and through. But what really sets The Room Next Door apart is the performances from Swinton and Moore. In one of the year's most inspired pairings, the two beloved actresses bring a pathos and levity to the work.

The screening will be followed by the GEMS Opening Night party in the Koubek Center courtyard.

Families are hard, and no one knows that better than mismatched cousins David (Jesse Eisenberg) and Benji (Kieran Culkin). The once-close men love each other deeply, but the years since their childhood have proven them to be different in fundamental ways. David is a strict rule-follower, a ball of anxious nerves who likes to draw up a plan and stick to it. Benji is quite the opposite: a spontaneous social butterfly who draws people in with his magnetism. But his charismatic exterior is one that hides a deep well of pain.

AWARDS CHATTER WITH SEBASTIAN STAN

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 5 PM

Wolfson Auditorium at Miami Dade College

300 NE Second Ave., Bldg. 1 – Second Floor

Miami Film Festival proudly presents a live recording of The Hollywood Reporter's "Awards Chatter" podcast, hosted by Scott Feinberg, THR's executive editor of awards. Feinberg will be joined by actor Sebastian Stan for a conversation on his career so far, as well as the projects coming up that have awards season buzz.

SEBASTIAN STAN has built an impressive career with notable performances and multiple award recognitions.

In 2024, Stan received the Silver Bear Award for Best Leading Performance at the Berlin Film Festival for his role in A24's A Different Man, in which he plays the lead role of Edward, an aspiring actor with neurofibromatosis who undergoes a radical medical procedure to drastically transform his appearance.

Also in 2024, Stan stars in The Apprentice, which premiered at the 2024 Cannes Film Festival to rave reviews for his performance.

In 2023 and 2022, Stan garnered Emmy, Golden Globe and Critics Choice nominations for his transformative portrayal of Tommy Lee in Hulu's limited series, Pam and Tommy, alongside Lily James.

Also in 2022, Stan received a nomination for a Hollywood Critics Association Award for his starring role in Mimi Cave's thriller Fresh, opposite Daisy Edgar-Jones. The film opened the Sundance Film Festival at its Midnight Selection screening that year.

Barnes, the Winter Soldier. The film is set to release in 2025. In 2021, he starred in the highly successful Disney+ and Marvel miniseries The Falcon and the Winter Soldier. Stan has portrayed the role of Bucky Barnes in seven of the billion-dollar Avengers franchise films, including Avengers: Endgame, Ant-Man, Black Panther, Avengers: Infinity War, and three installations of Marvel's Captain America: Captain America: Civil War, Captain America: The Winter Soldier and Captain America: The First Avenger.

Stan's work in independent films has included some of his most celebrated performances. In 2019, he starred in Drake Doremus' Endings, Beginnings alongside Jamie Dornan and Shailene Woodley, which premiered at the Toronto International Film Festival. He starred opposite Nicole Kidman in Karyn Kusama's critically acclaimed drama Destroyer, which premiered at the 2018 Toronto International Film Festival. And in 2017, he portrayed Jeff Gillooly in Craig Gillespie's Golden Globe-, Gotham- and New York Film Critics-nominated I, Tonya, alongside Margot Robbie and Allison Janney.

ALL WE IMAGINE AS LIGHT

Directed by
Payal Kapadia

India, France, Netherlands,
Luxembourg | 2024 | 115 min
Malayalam and Hindi with English subtitles

NOVEMBER 3 AT 2 PM | CGAC

Is Mumbai the city of dreams or illusions? It is a question posed midway through writer-director Payal Kapadia's lush, meditative feature following the interconnected lives of three nurses striving to find their truest selves amid the hustle and bustle of more than 20 million fellow souls – no small feat in a metropolis where ancient tradition and modernity are quarreling neighbors.

The truth is, however, that Mumbai – rendered here in all its kaleidoscopic complexity and as a character in its own right – may be neither dream nor illusion, but a knot to be untied between the threads of past and potential future. By the time we reach the Cannes 2024 Grand Prix award-winning film's heartrending, transcendent denouement, we realize the city's constant state of becoming may be a reflection of its inhabitants' hearts – and ours.

BETTER MAN

Directed by
Michael Gracey

Australia | 2024 | 134 min
English

NOVEMBER 2 AT 8 PM | SPOT

The Greatest Showman was one of the most successful musicals in a generation, and director Michael Gracey follows it up with Better Man, a fresh, inventive and original take on the musical-biopic.

Better Man is based on the true story of the meteoric rise, dramatic fall and remarkable resurgence of British pop superstar Robbie Williams, one of the greatest entertainers of all time. Under Gracey's visionary direction, the film is uniquely told from Williams' perspective, capturing his signature wit and indomitable spirit. It follows his journey from childhood to being the youngest member of chart-topping boy band Take That, and through to his unparalleled achievements as a record-breaking solo artist – all the while confronting the challenges that stratospheric fame and success can bring.

Better Man debuted to excellent reviews at the Telluride and Toronto film festivals.

BIRD

Directed by
Andrea Arnold

UK, USA, France, Germany
2024 | 119 min
English

NOVEMBER 1 AT 9:15 PM | SPOT

It says a lot about this dark and beguiling coming-of-age fable that a subplot centered on the attempts of a ne'er-do-well father (Barry Keoghan; Saltburn, The Banshees of Inisherin) to find the right indie pop song to coax hallucinogenic slime from an exotic toad is not its trippiest moment: Some of us, it seems, have indeed entertained angels – or at least mythological shapeshifters – unaware. And sometimes those guardians need a degree of saving, too.

Maybe you could call 12-year-old Bailey (a luminous and fierce Nykiya Adams) and her brother Hunter latchkey kids if their North Kent squat had a door to latch. The brutality and nihilism of the streets feels like an unavoidable vortex until the eccentric outsider Bird (Franz Rogowski; Passages) arrives out of nowhere on a quest to find his father, shifting the story into magical realism territory in which hope itself transforms from myth to tangible reality.

BLITZ

Directed by
Steve McQueen

UK | 2024 | 114 min
English

OCTOBER 30 AT 7:30 PM | SPOT

Steve McQueen's Blitz follows the epic journey of George (Elliott Heffernan), a 9-year-old boy in World War II London whose mother, Rita (Saoirse Ronan), sends him to safety in the English countryside. George, defiant and determined to return home to East London and his mom and grandfather, Gerald (Paul Weller), embarks on an adventure only to find himself in immense peril, while a distraught Rita searches for her missing son.

The film premiered as the Opening Night film of the BFI London Film Festival, and was included in the Toronto International Film Festival lineup.

NOVEMBER 1 AT 6:30 PM | KOOBEK

Bob Trevino Likes It is inspired by the true friendship that writer-director Tracie Laymon found with a stranger when looking for her father online. Often playing the role of caretaker to people who should be caring for her, Lily Trevino (Barbie Ferreira) longs for a familial connection, having been abandoned by her mother as a child and then suddenly by her father in her twenties. Bob Trevino (John Leguizamo) works long hours alone at a construction company to support his wife, Jeanie. The couple has endured a lot in the past decade, to the point where Bob ignores his own feelings and need for connection. That is, until he gets an unexpected Facebook message from a stranger.

Anchored by Barbie Ferreira (HBO's Euphoria) and Leguizamo's heartfelt lead performances, this semi-autobiographical feature will forever change the way you look at social media, scrapbooking, rage rooms and the obscured-yet-real interconnectedness of humanity.

OCTOBER 29 AT 7:30 PM | KOOBEK

Twelve year-old Desi struggles to navigate a traditional culture in which familial devotion and tight-knit community coexist uneasily alongside darker customs of sexual objectification and gendered servitude. Though her destiny appears preordained, a serendipitous rendezvous with a group of young street rappers proves much is left unwritten. As she tests her mettle in lyrical battles, Desi's revelatory stream-of-consciousness flow gives voice to her unspoken dreams and builds her self-confidence, sending ripples of change throughout her family and community.

This inspiring, thought-provoking Dominican coming-of-age feature – which won the Tribeca Film Festival Nora Ephron Award – serves as a powerful reminder that, if infused with the right melody and cadence, words can be spells – incantations that empower us to transcend the restrictive roles assigned to us and authentically self-actualize.

NOVEMBER 1 AT 9:30 PM | KOUBEK

It was known far and wide as the Disneyland of Mexican restaurants – a labyrinth-like Denver wonderland famous for its 30-foot waterfall and attendant cliff divers, throwback Western theme, massive gorilla mascot and food that was ... not so good. But when COVID-19 forces the legendary Casa Bonita restaurant into bankruptcy, South Park creators Trey Parker and Matt Stone see the opportunity to bring a childhood dream to life, buying the beleaguered landmark with an eye on returning it to its early 1970s glory. Working with famed restaurateur Dana “Loca” Rodriguez to update the menu, and armed with more than $8 million for renovations, the pair soon realize that this dream might just be beyond their grasp as they face a deteriorating structure, rapidly aging fixtures and a spiraling budget. With a projected summer 2023 opening date and the eyes of a nation upon them, Parker and Stone strive to see their vision through in this hilarious ode to the power of creativity and love for community.

NOVEMBER 3 AT 5:15 PM | SPOT

“Colors, like features,” Pablo Picasso once said, “follow the changes of the emotions.” It’s a maxim that earns more validation than the Spanish artist could have ever dreamed in this vibrant, magical, endlessly affecting animated feature from Naoko Yamada, the Japanese animator and director behind such landmark films as Liz and the Blue Bird (2018) and A Silent Voice: The Movie (2016).

Young Totsuko possesses the ability to see and interpret what no one else can: the intrinsic, ethereal “colors” of others. As she seeks to balance this gift with her high school studies, transcendence-tinged band practice in an old remote island church and own coming of age, the previously esoteric question, what does it take to discover one’s true colors – and how to best help others discover theirs – transforms into tangible technicolor reality.

NOVEMBER 3 AT 5 PM | CGAC

Over the last century there have been more than 20 film adaptations of Alexandre Dumas’ 1844 novel of a wrongly imprisoned man’s righteous, elaborate revenge against the trio of dastardly men who betrayed him for personal gain, but none quite match the soul-stirring pathos, rapier-sharp action or sweeping grandeur found here. Indeed, French directing team Matthieu Delaporte and Alexandre de La Patellière (The Best is Yet to Come, What’s in a Name?) treat the source material like the hidden treasure Edmond Dantès discovers in Monte Cristo, reveling in its Rube Goldberg machine-like plot with a devotion to detail and passion that makes it crackle with new resonance.

Come find out why this modern epic masterpiece received a 12-minute standing ovation at the 77th Cannes Film Festival back in May.

The Beatles vs. the Rolling Stones. Morrissey vs. Marr. Oasis vs. Blur. Drake vs. Kendrick. You may think you know rock 'n' roll rivalries, but it's all child's play until you've seen this seminal 2004 documentary detailing the volatile frenemy relationship between then up-and-coming psychedelic pop/folk refashioners The Dandy Warhols and The Brian Jonestown Massacre - the former trying to ride those sixties, summer-of-love vibes while the self-sabotaging pugilistic musical genius leading the latter taunts them with diss tracks ("Not if You Were the Last Dandy on Earth") and gift-wrapped shotgun shells with their names on them.

The film - helmed by Miami-raised director Ondi Timoner and christened the "greatest rock 'n' roll documentary of all time" by none other than Dave Grohl - has been enhanced with more than 40 minutes of new footage and context for its 20th anniversary. Come experience the rivalry at Miami Film Festival's small-audience, secret-venue screenings.

From renegade auteur Jacques Audiard comes Emilia Pérez, an audacious fever dream that defies genres and expectations. Through liberating song and dance and bold visuals, this odyssey follows the journey of four remarkable women in Mexico, each pursuing their own happiness. The double Cannes-winning film stars Zoe Saldaña, Selena Gomez, Adriana Paz, Édgar Ramírez and Karla Sofía Gascón in a tremendous, barrier-breaking performance.

Like an electrifying telenovela, Emilia Pérez takes you on an incendiary visual and auditory journey that's best experienced, not explained. Audiard, who's best known for acclaimed pictures such as Rust and Bone, A Prophet and Dheepan, has given us a gift of a film as well as an intoxicating crime musical about acceptance, redemption and rebirth.

HARD TRUTHS

Mike Leigh

UK, Spain | 2024 | 97 min

NOVEMBER 2 AT 3 PM | CGAC

Legendary filmmaker Mike Leigh returns to the contemporary world with a fierce, compassionate and darkly humorous study of family and the thorny ties that bind us.

Reunited with Leigh for the first time since the multiple Oscar-nominated Secrets and Lies, the astonishing Marianne Jean-Baptiste plays Pansy, a woman wracked by fear, tormented by afflictions and prone to raging tirades. Meanwhile, her easygoing younger sister, played by Michele Austin (Another Year), is a single mother with a life as different from Pansy's as their clashing temperaments - brimming with communal warmth from her salon clients and daughters alike. This expansive film from a master dramatist takes us into the intensities of kinship, duty and the most enduring of human mysteries: that even through lifetimes of hurt and hardship, we still find ways to love those we call family.

The girls came from very different backgrounds but shared an outrageous love of fantasy and novel writing. Their friendship quickly blossomed into an exclusive society of two, with the girls creating a complex fantasy life. The film is a study of an extraordinary friendship: a joyous, exhilarating relationship between two teenage girls, filled with humor, intelligence and two wonderful imaginations – and the tragic outcome of that relationship.

I'M STILL HERE

Directed by
Walter Salles

Brazil, France | 2024 | 136 min
Portuguese with English subtitles

NOVEMBER 3 AT 2:30 PM | REGAL

The military dictatorship that ruled Brazil from 1964 to 1985 counted on a regime of torture, intimidation and murder to maintain power. What they did not count on was Eunice Pavia, a widowed mother of five who balanced devotion to family with an courageous, undaunted quest for justice in the face of state oppression – first for her "disappeared" husband and persecuted family, and then as an unlikely lawyer-activist for a nation and its people, yearning to be free.

Based on the biographical book by Paiva's son Marcelo Rubens Paiva and helmed by acclaimed director Walter Salles (The Motorcycle Diaries, Central Station), I'm Still Here not only reconstructs an important part of Brazil's hidden history, but also serves as a timely reminder of the steep price – often unequally borne – for liberty and self-determination.

Rashid, The Grill's owner, has promised to help Pedro with his papers so he can "become legal." But a shocking revelation about Julia compels Pedro to spiral into an act that will stop the production line of one of the city's busiest kitchens once and for all.

La Cocina is a tragic and comic tribute to the invisible people who keep our restaurants running and our stomachs full, while chasing a perhaps unreachable version of the American dream.

Marco, The Invented Truth is the story of a hugely charismatic man who, for years, served as the speaker of a Spanish association of Holocaust victims, and who kept alive, before the media, within his own association and within his family, a fabrication: He claimed to be a survivor of a Nazi concentration camp, a "fact" that turned out to be a shameful lie.

Skillfully directed by Aitor Arregi and Jon Garaño, of The Endless Trench and Handia, this is a gripping moral thriller inspired by the unbelievable true story of Enric Marco, a man who spent years perpetuating an unimaginable lie. It stars three-time Goya winner Eduard Fernández, who brings Marco to life, and two-time Goya winner Nathalie Poza in the role of his wife.

That task becomes easier said than done, as political unrest erupts in the streets as the "Women, Life, Freedom" movement starts to grow louder and more urgent.
